III. CORRESPONDENCE COURSES

Announcement

The University of North Carolina offers to teachers and others extension courses by correspondence under the direction of the School of Education.

The following courses will be given during 1913-'14: Economics, Education, English, German, History, Mathematics, and Rural School Development.

Purpose

These courses are but the beginning of a greater extension work that the University hopes to be able to offer teachers and the public generally at an early day. In this way, it will place University instruction within easy reach of all who may be unable to attend its regular sessions.

The courses are planned with the hope that they will increase both the teacher's and the general reader's knowledge of the subject matter of the text-book and that they will, at the same time, present a rational and consistent method of instruction for the teacher's use in the classroom.

Method and System

Text-books will be required and definite assignments for study will be made as soon as a student registers for the course. Written recitations on the assignments will be required. The papers are to be sent to the instructor who will grade them, make the necessary corrections and suggestions, and return them to the student. In this way direct personal instruction will be given to all. A written examination will be held at the completion of the course.

Time Required

It will require about thirty-two weeks to complete a full course. A course may be begun at any time between October first and March first. If a course should be begun too late in the college year to be completed before the close of the year, it may be completed the following term. Each course will be divided into two parts so that the student may take a full course at his convenience.

Certificates

Upon the satisfactory completion of a course, a certificate to that effect will be promptly issued and sent to the student.

Tuition

The charge for each course is two dollars and the cost of the necessary postage. The fee of two dollars is to be paid upon registration. This small fee will barely cover the cost of stationery and printing. The instruction will be given by regular members of the University faculty whose only motive for giving the several courses is public service and not pecuniary reward.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

Economics

1. Economics and Government. A general course in elementary economics. It will treat of the uses of wealth for living, development, and government. It will also treat of the making of wealth by means of agriculture, manufacture, commerce, and transportation. Text: Raper's Principles of Wealth and Welfare. Professor RAPER.

Education

1. A brief study of the Principles of Teaching, the preparation of model lessons based on principles studied. Text: DeGarmo's Essentials of Method. Professor NOBLE and Professor WILLIAMS.
2. High School Organization: a study of the American High School, its curricula and methods. Text: Bivin's American High School. Professor WILLIAMS.

English

1. Rhetoric and Composition. Practice through theme-writing in punctuation, sentence structure, paragraphing, and the simpler forms of composition. Text: Wooley's Handbook of Composition. Associate Professor BOOKER and Mr. SNEATH.
2. General Reading Course in English Literature. The course will attempt to guide the student in a careful and intelligent reading of masterpieces selected from the various periods of English Literature. Professor GRAHAM and Professor ROYSTER.
3. The Modern Drama. Reading and criticism of representative modern dramas: Ibsen, Shaw, Pinero, Jones, Galsworthy, Barker, Hauptmann, Sudermann, Schnitzler, Maeterlinck, Rostand, Brieux, Strindberg. Professor ROYSTER.

German

1. An elementary course equivalent to the first year of high school German. Drill in the essentials of German grammar, translation of easy idiomatic German. Text: Mosher's Lern-und-Lesebuch. Professor TOY.

History

1. North Carolina History. A study of the leading facts of North Carolina History. Professor HAMILTON.
2. The essential facts of American History with emphasis laid upon political, social, and economic development. Professor HAMILTON.

Mathematics

1. A review of the principles of arithmetic. Special attention to High School arithmetic. Text: Wells' Academic Arithmetic, and Arithmetic leaflets sent by the department. Professor NOBLE.
2. Solid Geometry. A careful study of the text. Original problems. Text: Wells' Plane and Solid Geometry. Professor HENDERSON.

IV. GUIDANCE IN DEBATE AND DECLAMATION

EDGAR RALPH RANKIN, A. B., Secretary.

This division of the Bureau of Extension offers assistance in two ways:

1. Material is sent from the Library for use in debate and declamation upon the payment of the transportation charges.

2. Through the High School Debating Union it supervises a state-wide debate which culminates in the contest at the University for the Aycock Memorial Cup.

The final contest of the session 1912-1913, in which seventeen schools participated, was won by Messrs. Grady Bowman and Samuel C. Hodgins of the Pleasant Garden High School, Guilford County.

The following bulletins have been issued:

Woman's Suffrage.

Addresses on Education for Use in Declamation.

The Initiative and Referendum.

Public Discussion and Debate.

V. COUNTY ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL SURVEYS

This division of the Bureau of Extension has the supervision of the investigations of the County Clubs, whose purpose is to aid through wisely directed study the efforts to better the economic and social conditions in the various communities of the State.

VI. MUNICIPAL AND LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE AIDS

The work of this division consists in the study of legislative problems and in the furnishing of material that bears upon current legislation.

VII. A TEACHERS' BUREAU

This division attempts to aid communities and schools in securing efficient teachers.
